

BUSINESS CHARTER

An Agreement Between WhereToNext Zimbabwe and Ridgeville College

Preamble

This Business Charter ("the Charter") is entered into between WhereToNext Zimbabwe, a student company founded and operated by learners at Ridgeville College ("the Company"), and Ridgeville College ("the School"), represented by its Board of Directors and Headmaster. It sets out the terms on which the School recognises and supports the Company, and the responsibilities each party accepts in return.

This Charter is a school-based, educational agreement created for the purposes of the Company's formation, mentorship and operation within Ridgeville College. It is not a registered legal or commercial contract.

Parties to This Charter

On behalf of the Company	On behalf of the School
Jonathan Ruvinga Chief Executive Officer, WhereToNext Zimbabwe	Mr Mukwekwezeke Headmaster, Ridgeville College

1. Purpose of the Charter

The purpose of this Charter is to formally establish WhereToNext Zimbabwe as a recognised student company operating within Ridgeville College, and to record the support the School has agreed to provide as the Company develops an AI-augmented tourism platform for Zimbabwe.

2. Terms of the Agreement

- The School recognises WhereToNext Zimbabwe as an official student-run company permitted to operate within Ridgeville College.
- The Company's funds, raised through member shares of US$2 each, shall be held in trust by the School's administration on behalf of the Company, and shall be released to the Company for approved expenses as needed.
- The Company is permitted to use school assemblies to introduce itself, recruit members, and advertise its platform to students, staff, parents and other prospective users.
- The School, through the Board of Directors and the Headmaster, agrees to provide ongoing mentorship, oversight and encouragement to the Company as it grows.

5. The Company agrees to operate transparently, keeping accurate records of its membership, shares and spending, and to report on its activities to the School as reasonably requested.
6. Either party may review or renegotiate the terms of this Charter as the Company's activities grow, in particular if the Company expands beyond Ridgeville College.

3. Responsibilities of Each Party

Ridgeview College agrees to:	WhereToNext Zimbabwe agrees to:
• Recognise WhereToNext Zimbabwe as an official student company operating within the school • Hold and safeguard the company's funds through the school's administration • Allow the company to advertise and recruit members • Provide a member of staff to mentor and guide the company's activities • Support the company's participation in testing, outreach and future events	• Operate honestly, transparently and in line with the values of Ridgeville College • Provide the school with regular updates on the company's activities and finances • Use school assemblies and resources responsibly • Keep accurate records of all shares, contributions and spending • Acknowledge RidgevilleCollege's role in the company's formation and growth

4. Continued Support

The Board of Directors and the Headmaster of Ridgeville College confirm their continued support for WhereToNext Zimbabwe as it develops, tests and grows its platform, and their willingness to assist the Company in seeking further opportunities — including participation in wider tourism industry events — as it matures.

5. Duration and Review

This Charter takes effect from the date of signature below and remains in force for as long as WhereToNext Zimbabwe operates as a student company within Ridgeview College, subject to annual review by the Board of Directors.

Signatures

_____ Jonathan Ruvinga Chief Executive Officer, WhereToNext Zimbabwe Date: _____	_____ Mr Mukwekwezeke Headmaster, Ridgeville College Date: _____
---	---

On behalf of the Ridgeville College Board of Directors:

_____ Date: _____

